Message from The President

In the 2016/17 season, HKLBA saw some movements and changes amongst the Officers and our staff. With the resignation of Messrs Walter Kwok (VP National Championships) and Derek Lee (Asst. Hon. Secretary), we have David Tse from KBGC taking up the post of Asst. Hon. Secretary, Warren Kwok moves sideways from VP Development to VP National Championships, Heron Lau moves from VP International to VP Development and Glyn Davies from HKCC taking over as VP International. In the office, Ms Shirley Kwok took over from Leona Ng who climbed further up the ladder to become a Senior Sports Executive of another National Sports Association.

In the last season Hong Kong Players achieved satisfactory results in International events, which would keep us in the Tier B of the HKSI Funding List for another four years. In summary, these results were: -

In the World Bowls Championships in Christchurch, New Zealand between 26 Nov and 11 Dec 2016, Hong Kong Men's Team came 14th out of 27 countries whilst the Women's Team came 13th out of 29.

In the World Champion of Champions held in Queensland, Australia on 14 - 20 Nov 2016, Hong Kong came 7th out of 20 participants.

The World Cup Indoor Singles was held on 14 - 22 Mar 2017 in Australia, the Men came 10th and the Women came 11th out of 26 and 23 participants respectively.

In the World Youth Championships held in Gold Coast Queensland, Australia on 27 Mar - 2 Apr 2017, two boys and two girls represented Hong Kong came 13th and 14th out of 21 participating teams.

The 2016 National Bocce (Lawn Bowls) Championships held in China, Hong Kong Team returned in triumph with three Gold Medals in Mixed Fours, Men's Singles, Men's Pairs respectively and a Bronze Medal in the Men's Singles.

In the 2016 Hong Kong International Bowls Classic, we had four players entering various final stages, Camilla LEUNG and Queenie LAI fought all the way through to Quarter-final, Angela CHAU completed her voyage in Semi-final and Dorothy YU, though ended up with a runner-up title, her performance in the Classic Women's Singles for two consecutive years was excellent. In the Men's Singles, LUI Chin-hong played in the Quarter-final and in the Men's Pairs, Kevin FUNG and Stanley LAI fetched a Bronze Medal in Semi-final.

As regards the locally organized League and National Competitions, most matches were completed in a smooth and successful manner with discernible cooperation between opposing teams. Hopefully this healthy trend would sustain in future.

It is worthwhile to note the opening of an indoor green in Yuen Chau Kok, Shatin; the intention of the HKLBA to host the 2024 World Bowls Championships in Hong Kong, and in parallel China's submission of their bid to host the 2023 Asia Pacific Championships. With the concerted efforts of all, it is hoped that the HKLBA can scale a new height by bringing the renowned World Bowls Championships to Hong Kong and, as a matter of fact, the first time to Asia as well. Moreover, it would be equally pleased to see that China also start to act on stage in organizing major International events.

Finally, I wish to express my sincere gratitude to LCSD for their continuous funding and to HKSI for their subsidies in supporting the Hong Kong Team. My appreciation also goes to all the sponsors and our affiliated Clubs for their assistance, and to all the bowlers in supporting lawn bowling.

My congratulation to all the winners tonight and wish everybody an enjoyable evening.

Classic Memories: Hopes almost became reality

After registered the biggest ever success in 2015, when local bowlers lifted three of the four titles at the Hong Kong International Bowls Classic, the 2016 Classic were again filled with hopes, sweats and tears.

Hopes were on defending champion Dorothy Yu to become the first lady to retain the Singles title and she narrowly missed the glory at the tie-breaker in the final. Hopes were on the girl pairs of Vivian Yip and Amy Choi and they were just two points short of qualifying for the knock-out stage. Hopes were on the defending men's champion Jordi Lo but he was knocked out in the third round.

One hope did become reality though. In the men's pairs, Australian boys Nathan Pedersen and Corey Wedlock became the fifth team in the 30 years history of the Classic to successfully defend their title. And Philippian Sonia Bruce also lifted her second Pairs title in three years.

Pairs

The men's pairs produced the youngest ever final at the Classic, when all four bowlers were under the age of 25, the Aussies overcame Ryan Burnett and Kevin Anderson from Scotland to keep the trophy they won in 2015.

During the roundrobin stage both Australia and Scotland were in the same group and both teams won 9 of the 11 games. Scotland only lost once in the hand of Australia at that stage and they defeated local club Craigengower

Cricket Club in the semi-final to enter the final. Australia beat group B leader Wales in the semi-final.

In the final the Aussies were always on the upper hand. In the first set they lead throughout and finished it 8:7.

In the second set the Australians continued their domination and were leading the game 7:1 after 5 ends. In the sixth end when Pedersen trailed the jack and held a shot, Andersen tried to drive but took out his 2nd and 3rd bowls. The Scottish lost five shots in this end and handed the match to their opponents.

Pedersen and Wedlock were very happy to repeat the feat last year. Wedlock felt that the roundrobin stage was easier than last year as some of the stronger players were not in Hong Kong due to their World Championship commitment but the final was a completely different story, "The greens were tricky and both of us were struggling at some point. We won because we are more consistent but the score didn't really reflect how tough the final was.

"Right from the start we were having the upper hand so they have to chase us for most part of the game. In some situations they needed to play some big shots but it did not always work.

"We are happy to do it again and hopefully we can come back next year to do it three time in a row," said Wedlock.

Pedersen, who is only 22, was happy about winning the title again, "I love the city and the tournament very much and to win it again was especially amazing. Now I am looking forward to the challenge next year."

In the women's pairs, 2014 champion Sonia Bruce from Philippines partnered with Rosita Bradborn to win her second title in three years.

They beat the young Malaysia team of Noorazlinda

Zakaria and Zuraini Khalid in straight sets 11-2, 7-7 in the final. Khalid won the women's singles a week ago.

Bruce, who partnered Ainie Knight to lift the title two years ago, was delighted to do it again this year, "The Malaysian team was very strong but we know we can beat them if we play with our usual standard. I played very well in the final and sometimes it was difficult for them to turn the head. We kept our composure throughout and luckily we were over the finish line before they can catch us."

The defending champion from Hong Kong Youth Team, Amy Choi and Vivian Yip, narrowly missed qualifying for the knockout stage. They finished fourth in the group, same position with the Hong Kong team in the other group.

Singles

In the women's singles, defending champion Dorothy Yu, who won the first ever women's Classic Singles for Hong Kong in 2015, started well in her defending journey. She defeated Michelle Chung from Wahhar Institute of Sports in the first round, and overcame 2014 Classic Pairs champion Sonia Bruce from Philippines and 2016 Asian Championship gold medalist Noorazlinda Zakaria from Malaysia in the following two rounds.

She followed up with wins against local players Queenie Lai and Angela Chau to progress to the final against Malaysian Zuraini Khalid, a silver medalist at the 2010 Commonwealth Games.

In the first set Yu struggled with the pace of the green and lost by a big margin of 14:1. In the second set Khalid lost a little concentration and Yu pull one back with the score of 10:3.

In the extra set of three ends it was all Khalid as she displayed the consistency required for crucial moments. Yu tried hard to focus on drawing but it was not enough for her to overturn deficit. The end finished 4:0 and Khalid became the third Malaysian lady to win the title.

Despite her lost in the final, Yu is still happy with the results, "Getting to the final has achieved my target so I am satisfied with my performance."

Yu believed that she should have been doing better in the final though, "I was slow in adapting to the green's condition in the first set but managed to come back in the second set. In the tie-breaker I should have taken some of the chances but my opponent is very consistence so she won."

Khalid was very happy to win the singles title in her first Classic appearance, "There were good players and tough games during the course of the competition. I just played my normal game and focused on what I can do. By this I kept my consistence and luckily got the result as well."

Including Yu, a total of four Hong Kong ladies were through to the quarter-finals stage so it was quite a good result for the local bowling community.

In the men's singles, defending champion Jordi Lo was eliminated by Australian Nathan Pedersen in the third round. Pedersen lost to Welshman David Wyn Kingdon in the following round and the latter then beat Andrew Kyle from Ireland to enter the final.

In the other half David Bolt from England defeated a number of strong players to face Kingdon in the final.

The match started evenly with each player winning a set. In the extra set both players displayed a highly skillful drawing technique and Bolt was winning 2:1 after the first two ends. In the third end Bolt had drawn a close shot and Kingdon played heavily to push the jack away to hold one. Bolt then delivered his last bowls, "wicked" on of his own bowl and touched the jack. Kingdon tried to run it but missed and the set finished 3:1.

Bolt was delighted to win the title in his first visit to Asia, "It is my first time here and it has been fantastic. I wasn't sure what to expect with the greens condition but I always thought if I played the way I was then I will have as good chance as anyone. To be honest I would not come over here if I thought I did not have a chance of winning and justify my selection.

"This is the best moment of my bowling career so far," said a satisfied Bolt.

The only local player entered the quarter-finals were Lui Chin Hong from Craigengower Cricket Club, who was eliminated by Andrew Kyle from Ireland.

All finals are still available on YouTube. Bowlers around the world may visit <http://www.hklba.org/live> to view them.

The Inaugural Classic Carnival with a total of 16 teams staged at Kowloon Cricket Club and Kowloon Bowling Green Club between 2 November and 8 November 2016.

The 16 teams were divided into two groups of 8 teams each to play a single round robin of 14 ends of fours. After the round robin stage, the top team of each group has gone straight into the semi-final whereas the second and third teams of each group have had a play-off match for the remaining semi-final spots.
